WAGS Challenge – Mapperley Golf Club : Sunday 21st June 2015

21 WAGS members attended this seasons WAGS Challenge, which since 2001 has been played for at the away weekend. However with this years Captain Bill Bash wishing to play the Captain's Day Trophy at the away weekend, we switched the WAGS Challenge to during the normal season. The WAGS Challenge is the Wilsthorpe Amateur Golf Societies oldest trophy, dating back to the dawn of the society back in 1991. It was first won by Roy Robinson.

It has been won 24 times prior to today's match at Mapperley, with 10 current WAGS members having won the trophy a total of 15 times, these are: -

Mick Fullwood	in 1995
John Frearson	in 1996, 1997 & 2004
Bill Bash	in 1999 & 2008
Ian Patrick	in 2003 & 2007
Daniel O'Hanlon	in 2006 & 2013
Pete Hallam	in 2009
Danny Fletcher	in 2010
Shane Dellow	in 2011
Dave Johnstone	in 2012
Daniel Keen	in 2014

So how did the 21 WAGS members fair in the pars and birdies? Well we managed to card a grand total of 47 gross pars. Not a bad effort, but a little down on last years visit to Mapperley, where we carded a total of 60 gross pars! Albeit there was a total of 23 players last year. So who topped the gross pars listings? Well it was a close run thing. In fact it could not have been closer, with Graham Hofmann, Daniel O'Hanlon and Mick O'Hanlon all carding 5 gross pars each. Gentlemen well played to you all.

Along with the gross pars, the WAGS members managed to card 7 gross birdies, this compares to only 5 gross birdies last year, so an improvement on gross birdies ☺.

Those carding the gross birdies were: -

Mick O'Hanlon	Hole No.3	Par 4	309 yards	Stroke Index 12
Jordan Hughes	Hole No.4	Par 4	394 yards	Stoke Index 6
Dave Johnstone	Hole No.7	Par 4	320 yards	Stroke Index 10
Martin Sheppard	Hole No.8	Par 3	119 yards	Stroke Index 18
Graham Hofmann	Hole No.12	Par 5	542 yards	Stroke Index 7
Andrew Shilton	Hole No.13	Par 5	485 yards	Stroke Index 11
Robbie Kerr	Hole No.13	Par 5	485 yards	Stroke Index 11

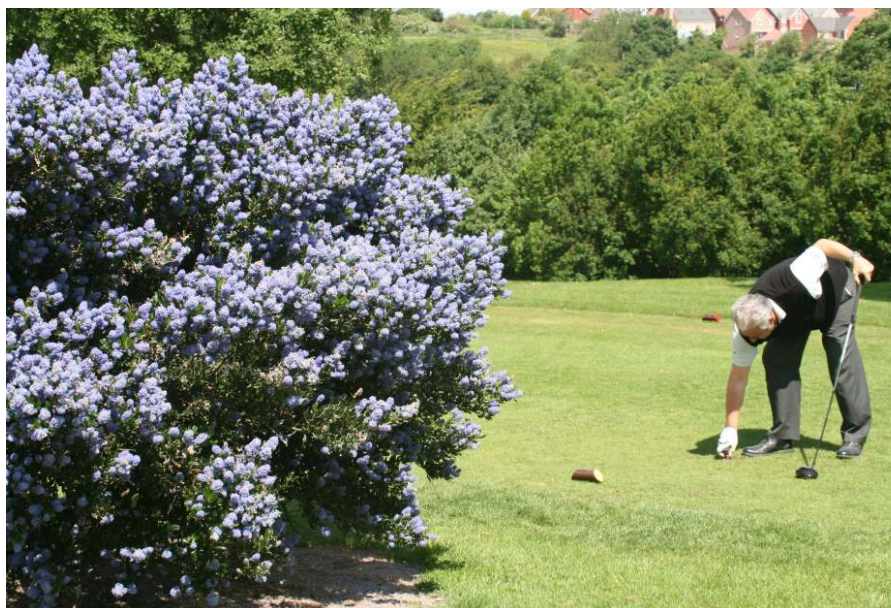

Gentlemen very well played.

Whilst Mick Fullwood was walking around the course in a “silly” hat, his words!! Mick asked us all before he teed off and we assured him..... yes it was a silly hat ☺.

Meanwhile Ian Patrick prepares to tee off next to a rather large blue/purple bush. I have no idea what it is called, I just thought it might make a colourful picture and show a little of the British countryside. Haven't you all just missed the pictures?? You can say yes ☺.

So to the results of the 2015 WAGS Challenge.....

The results: -

WINNER ~	Charlie Shilton	- 32 pts
2 nd ~	Daniel O'Hanlon	- 29 pts
3 rd ~	Andrew Shilton	- 28 pts
Nearest the Pin ~	Martin Sheppard	- Hole No.8
	n/a	- Hole No.11
	n/a	- Hole No.17
Longest Drive ~	Robbie Kerr	- Hole No.13
Nearest the Pin in 3 ~	Mick O'Hanlon	- Hole No.18

Very well played gentlemen.

I was only trying to take a lovely picture of the course at Mapperley, when I got what is commonly now known as “photo-bombed”. And from a respected member of the WAGS committee!!

Gentlemen well done on what proved to be a very entertaining course, although maybe a little more difficult than I think we all expected ☺

Well there is no denying that Charlie, Mick and Daniel are doing the correct thing and keeping their eye on the ball as they take their shot!! Maybe that is the secret to having a better round, watching the ball – problem solved ☺

What better way to finish a WAGS newsletter than to show the members in an environment they have become so adept in and one would say, they quite enjoy what could it be?
